THURSDAY, AUG. 18, 1910.

The Toronto Globe reproduces this from its files of fifty years ago under date of August 14:

"We have received The Fort Garry
Nor'Wester of the 28th of July. . . .
The Hudson Bay Company's brigades of fourteen boats, with the outfit for the Saskatchewan district points, took its departure for Fort Edmonton from the lower Fort Garry, under command of Chief Factor William J. Christie, Esq., on the 21st. If the weather is favorable the brigade will arrive at Edmonton about the 20th of September."

Today a thirty hour railway service between Winnipeg and Edmonton is provided and one of twenty-four hours is promised at an early date. This is somewhat of an improvement over the sixty day schedule of Chief Factor Christie's party.

The Queen's Own Rifles of Toronto
are on their way to Britain, all expenses being paid by their commanding officer, Col. Pellatt. A Montreal regiment has chosen Mr.
Rudolf Peretz as its colonel and one in Ottawa Mr. J. W. Wood. Like Col. Pellatt, these gentlemen are both wealthy citizens and both have promised to take their corps over to the Creston next summer. This is a pretty stiff pace for other military men to follow and it will not do the service any good. There has been great difficulty in the past in most parts of Canada in securing competent officers, for the militia, and one of the main reasons has been that it was too costly a diversion. When a man gives up his time to an important public duty, he should not be expected to make a large outlay of money as well.
But most of those who have had experience as officers will tell you that they paid dearly for the privilege of serving their country. If the militia is to be what it should be, it is absolutely necessary to bring about a change in these conditions and this practice of choosing very wealthy men as commanding officers for the purpose of securing a jaunt at their expense will certainly not tend to promote efficiency.

The announcement of the death of Prof. E. Stone Wiggins, of Ottawa, takes one back to the middle eighties,
when his name was frequently met with in the newspapers and he was an especial butt of the supposed humorists. It all arose from his theories regarding earthquakes and his predictions of them. What brought him especially to the fore was his foretelling the very disastrous one which destroyed the greater part of Charleston.
Some Carolina people were even said to lay their troubles at his door.
Prof. Wiggins, however, was not a Foster or a Ira Hicks. He did not start a weather bureau, as he might have done and by no means relished
the notoriety he achieved, so finally abandoned his hobby, with the result that to the generation which has since arisen his name is an unknown one.

It is the business of the western editorial representative of the Toronto Globe to keep eastern readers informed as to the actual conditions in this part of the country, so when he writes
as follows it should serve to discount
to a large extent any pessimistic talk that has been heard.

"General business," he writes, "maintains the activity that has characterized it during the past two years, and if there has been any slowing down
on account of the crop conditions it is not apparent in the statistics. Even the grain movement is freer than at this time in any previous season. The farmer in Central Manitoba who sold 2,500 bushels of wheat at $1.10 the other day probably can afford to understand the unkindness of the elements
this season. As for the bank clearings, railway earnings and banking figures, there is every indication of a full head of steam. There is a tendency towards a tightness in the money market, but no one seems to know the reason for that development.
It has been regarded as a preliminary symptom, reflecting a policy of caution on the part of the banks and other financial institutions. This is the most conspicuous cloud on the horizon, and its appearance may be ascribed to the necessity for curbing the extravagance which many sections of the population are manifesting so plainly."

It is To Laugh

A burglar doesn't mind making bad breaks if he isn't caught in the act.

Dear Man.

Man—Well, it's just the way. If I give you a new coat I'll have to wear
my old one another season.

Wife—You sweet generous thing,
you.

An Explanation.

Young Husband—Alice, these eggs
are scrambled.

Young Wife—Yes dearie, the grocer
said that the chickens that laid them were chased by a dog.

One of the Nine.

"Who has broken the milk jug?"
"The cat knocked that down, madame."

"What cat?"
"Haven't we got one?"

Hadin' Improved.

He falter a quarrel, blither—I was a fool when I married you.
She—If I knew it, had I thought you would improve.

Getting Even

Young Son—Mr. Smith, your daughter has promised to marry me.

Old Smith—Great Scott. She said
she'd get even with me when I refused to buy her that puppy she other day.

Patient Casey.

"What's this I hear about Casey?"
asked Mr. McGinnis.

"He's being try ing to asphyxiate
himself," said O'Reilly.

"Gwan! What did he do?"
"He lit every gas jet in the house and sat down and waited."

The Mean Thing.

Mrs. Noobridge—Yes, dear, I was married last month. I'd like you to call on me and see the pretty little flat I have.

Miss Jelluse: I have seen him, my
dear.

The Mouths of Babes.

"What state do we live in?" asked
the teacher in the primary geography class.

And little Elmers, thinking of his Sunday School catechism, promptly replied: "In a state of sin and misery."

Old Grumps—If nature had made me an ostrich perhaps I could cut your tongue.

"That would be fine," answered his impermeable wife, "then I could get some plumes for my hat."—Chicago Record-Herald.

NOT SWIFT ENOUGH.

"That play isn't true to life."
"Why not?"

"The heroine is a Chicago woman,
and although three months are supposed to elapse between the first and second acts, she has the same husband
in both acts."

REBUKED.

Shoo Walker—Oleves, Miss? Yes
you will find the kids counter on the right.

Rising Fifteen (witheringly)—Really! And where pray shall I find the ladies' counter?—Tit-Bits.

MODERNIZED.

Artist—Back from the sewing circle? I suppose you are making a crazy quilt for poor old lady Jones?

Gwendolyn—No! much. Each girl brought a piece of busted auto to gather into a new machine for poor divorced Mrs. Uppish.—Puck.

A DRY STATE.

"What are those queer noises?" asked the stranger who was crossing the music bridge.

"Bull frogs, mister," elucidated the freckled lad on the rail.

"H'm! And are they croaking 'jugger-run like they always do?'"
"No sir, they couldn't croak 'jugger-run' here. This is a prohibition state,"
—Chicago News.

WHAT HE SAID.

A group of Scotch lawyers were met privately at an Ayrshire inn one cold evening last December. The conversation turned upon pronunciations.

"Now I," said one of the barristers,
"always say neetther, while John here
says neether. What do you say, Sandy?"

The hot tipple had made Sandy doze
and at the sudden question he aroused and replied, "I? Oh, I say whinkey,"

POLICE AND TROOPS
BOTH WITHDRAWN

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 17.—All police guards were withdrawn from the cars
early last night by Mayor Marshall, who declared that he would not be responsible for operations during the night by strike-breakers. At a conference in the state house with Adjutant-General Weybrecht, the mayor put it up to the state through the troops to guard the cars at night if the company should persist in operations.
General Manager Stewart refused to accede to Marshall's request that the cars be withdrawn. In closing a letter to the Mayor he said: "We demand protection from you." The state officers declined to assume such responsibility which the Mayor sought to shift, and it was announced that the state would not permit troops to patrol the streets or ride on the cars, but would hold them in readiness to respond to a call for aid.

"Harold!"

COMMONSENSE

Mr. Churchill's Scheme of Prison Reform.

By John Galsworthy, in the London
"Daily Mail,"

(Mr. John Galsworthy, the writer of the writer of the following article, is the author of that powerful play
"Justice," to whose inspiration the Home Secretary made allusion in his remarkable speech in the House of Commons last week when forecasting the Prison Reforms he intends to implement next session.)

There is no word so fitted to the scheme of Prison Reform put before the country as commonsense. And since commonsense is rather rare, the country will be grateful.

It has been neither sensible nor decent that youthful offenders should be made familiar with prison except in the very last resort.

It has been absurd to atrophy the minds and spirits of convicts in goal;
to treat them on release as hopeless
suspicious characters, and then to expect them not to come back to prison.

Defaulters' Drill

It has been said that physical drill
under the police will be found an impossible substitute for imprisonment with the great majority of youthful offenders owing to their stunted growth and epileptic tendencies. As to that, it is fairly obvious that where physical drill is found impossible technical education or some other good and thoroughly unpleasant form of exercise (to this class of boy) will be substituted. Where reforms are inspired, as these are, by commonsense, we need not be afraid of points of detail. But the fact, so admirably insisted on by this critic, that the great majority of these boys, whom all this dilute reform has poured into our prisons, are stunted, epileptically inclined hopelessly unfit, is quite sufficient in itself to damn for ever our old habit of helping to make good birds of them before their crime. Moreover, the proposed new way of dealing with these youthful ruffians is going to stretch their powers and "take it out of them,"
whether it be by way of physical drill,
technical education, or horstall treatment, far more than the present casual short-term imprisonment.

It has been said that if convicts disfranchisement for 24 hours of 24 each day for three months on end is not quite so jolly as all that.

The official defence of separate confinement has had three main pleas. (1)
That before it existed prisoners would ask for it. But this is going back to the dark age when there was no classification in prisons nor science of any sort except that of manufacturing the criminal. (2) That they prefer it,
which is, indeed, of a small portion of convicts—generally educated men, the class of prisoners naturally best understood and sympathized with and best able to express their feelings, so that their opinions have acquired an exaggerated importance as against those of the great majority of convicts, who, uneducated, have less resources in themselves against solicitude, less power of voicing their sufferings, and far less dread of encountering their fellow-prisoners. (3) That it is a deterrent. But how is it possible that a period of separate confinement always coming at the beginning of a long term of imprisonment, during which the monotony and general conditions of prison life obliterate all sharp sensation of any sort, can be deterrent? And even if there remain a hardening deterrence it is purchased at the far too high cost of the deterioration of mental fibre which long periods of seclusion work in nine men out of ten.

The suggested feeding of the convict's mind with occasional lectures and concerts has been found a humorous idea. In life generally it is a good thing to keep a man's mind blank, to dwarf his mentality and stifle any seed of good there may be in him?
And if not a life, why in prison, where are collected those most in need of mental and spiritual incentive?

It is not in the least true that these reforms are over-lenient or sentimental and will tend to augment the ranks of criminals. The very opposite is the case; they will tend to diminish criminality. And they will be adoped, with such variations as may be found needful simply because they are from beginning to end—commonsense.

EXPECT FORTY THOUSAND TO ATTEND THE EXHIBITION

And Even if They Were All There
at Once There Would Be Lots of Room

WILL BE LOTS OF FUN, TOO

A Whole Street of Amusements
and Side Shows of All Kinds—
A Regular Mushroom Avenue

Forty thousand is the expected attendance at the Exhibition next week and should the whole forty thousand arrive at the grounds at the same moment they would be pretty nearly large enough to hold them. But even now in places it has been found that insufficient space has been allotted. Next year twenty more acres will be added for the farm machinery exhibits as the space at present allowed is filled to overflowing. Great care has been taken however that the buildings should not be crowded and between each building there is room for them to be duplicated which will very probably be necessary within the next few years.

The buildings themselves have been most carefully planned and are complete in every detail necessary for the accommodation of the live stock. There are exits at both ends and at both sides, the side exits to be used for the cleaning of the stalls, there being a receptacle for manure placed outside. The floors of the buildings are made of wood and are several feet off the ground, spectators entering from the front, going up several steps and the animals using the back entrance, where a sloping platform is provided. The most likely thing being that the visitors will not have to walk on the same ground that the animals use and run the risk of getting their feet dirty. Everything that could be done in the way of ventilation, lighting and water supply has been done. The race track according to experts who have examined it, is the best in the west and certainly is in excellent condition at present. From the grand stand an excellent view of the whole fair grounds can be obtained, and from this point of advantage the fire works at night over the lake should be a fine sight.

In two enclosed spaces near the Barnes show there will be exhibits of grain grown in the district. This exhibit will be no picked bundle, but a sample of the wheat as it came straight from the binder. Under the Board of Trade exhibit there will of course be grain exhibits, but these will necessarily be the best that can be obtained.

The dining hall, under the supervision of Mr. Dodge will be one of the great conveniences of the fair. Its capacity will be over 500, the inside being divided into three divisions—the directors room, the main dining hall and the quick lunch counter. This counter runs the whole length of the building on the outside so that quick lunchers will practically be lunching in the open air.

The amusement side of the fair will be well looked after. At the back of the grand stand is the privilege space where countless numbers of booths of every description are being erected. Barnes circus will provide their own amusement street as well as the big show in the canvas. There will be racing every afternoon, and the handsome prizes offered have drawn a large number of well known racing stables to enter their horses.

Between the races the band will play in front of the stand and there will also be a band in the bandstand situated in a grove of trees near the cattle buildings. Three local bands have been engaged for the week—the Toronto Pipers band, the citizens, and the pipers band, and as well as these Barnes will have a large military band of 26 pieces which will play on their own ground.

The grand stand, which is nearly completed, is one of the most up-to-date in the country. The stand is divided into reserved and unreserved portions, fifty cents extra being charged for the reserved seats. The entrances are arranged in the shape of a tunnel underneath the stand, the left hand one being the unreserved and the right hand one for the reserved seats.

Negotiations Broken Off With E. C. Boyle Regarding Filtration Plant

As the result of the breaking off of negotiations between the city commissioners and E. C. Boyle, representative of the Roberts Manufacturing Company, in reference to the filter plant which took place at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the commissioners, negotiations will be resumed at an early date with the company direct, in order to see if some understanding can be arrived at in the apportioning of the cost of repairs to the plant. The Roberts Manufacturing Company, through Mr. Boyle, have disclaimed any liability in the matter of repairs to the plant, declaring that the city was responsible for its condition. The company, prior to the installation of the plant guaranteed that it would operate properly. Mr. Boyle will leave the city immediately.

Commissioner Bouillon and Engineer Latonell will discuss the Athabasca river power scheme and the advisability of appointing an expert engineer to make a report.

The fire department was permitted to take part in the labor day parade.

METROPOLITAN OPERA TENOR WITH MELBA

Albert Quesnel, the French Canadian tenor, who returns to America after a tour of the Metropolitain Opera Company, has been secured by Melba for her Canadian-American tour. This was rendered possible as the opera season does not commence until November, and Melba's concert will terminate then so as to permit the diva to fill opera engagements in New York and Chicago. Melba journeyed specially to Paris to hear Mr. Quesnel sing, and was so impressed by the beauty and remarkable range of his voice that she immediately engaged him for her concert tour and also for her Grand Opera season in Australia in 1911-12. Mr. Quesnel has been abroad for several years and has met with marked success, having been a member of the Opera, Paris, for two seasons. Mr. Geo. H. Stocking, who is managing the Melba Concert to be given in the Thistle Rink, October 5th, states that the subscription list will shortly close.

McPHEE'S WORLD'S BEST DOG AND PONY SHOW

Will Exhibit Three Days, Commencing Tuesday, Aug. 23rd, Under the Auspices of Edmonton Fair Association, Show Grounds, Second St., Opposite C. M. R. Depot.

The best cared for lot of animals in the world are probably the dog and pony members of Downie's World's best dog any pony show, which will exhibit under canvas in this city. They travel in palace cars and are carefully watched over as though they were children. The most aristocratic member of the company is Chief, the tiny elephant. He wears a suit of clothes and a hat whenever he is exposed to the elements. The hat was constructed especially for him and measured in size 21. His clothes were made by a fashionable tailor and he is in every respect a swell.

Watch for big noonday parade.

GAME WAS DRAWN

Calles B. and North Edmonton Play Extra Time. Score 1-1.

The football match last night at second street grounds, between Calles B. and North Edmonton was witnessed by 500 people, and proved to be one of the hardest fought games of the season.

Calles B. scored on a penalty kick in the first half, Hope getting the goal. At the interval the score was unchanged.

The second half was all North Edmonton. They pressed furiously and though they had two goals disallowed on account of off-sides, the boys from Packington were not to be denied, and just before the whistle blew for full time, Chahane put the pigskin past Orr. Extra time was played, but darkness intervened before the tie could be broken. The game will be replayed at an early date.

Manton, Moffat, Chahane and Barton were prominent for the Pigskin. In the white Orr, Paterson, Hope and Roeborough starred for Calles B.

The teams were: Calcedonians—Orr, Roeborough, Todd, Rademacher, Torrance, Hunter, Paterson, Jackson, Collin, Hope, Albion.

North Edmonton—Woodman, Moffat, Towns, Alexander, Wilson, Graham, Manton, Chahane, Barton, McCormick, Massacre.

Referee—R. M. Miller.

The next game for the shield takes place on Friday when St. George's and S. O. E. play.

MEPHEE'S WORLD'S BEST DOG AND PONY SHOW

Will Exhibit Three Days, Commencing Tuesday, Aug. 23rd, Under the Auspices of Edmonton Fair Association, Show Grounds, Second St., Opposite C. N. R. Depot.

"The greatest clown dog that ever lived comes from Ishpeming, Mich., with Downie's Dog and Pony Show, which exhibits under a big tent.

Some ten years ago Mr. Downie saw a dog following a butcher's wagon and recognized infernal dog genius. He was made a present of the dog when he asked for him. Mr. Downie took the dog and immediately began to train him. "Don't you know," said he, "that was the easiest dog to train I have ever seen out of the thousands I have worked with. Inside of a week I could do almost anything with him. That dog has made me thousands of dollars and everywhere I give exhibitions the people fairly go wild over his work. He is simply a show in himself. He will actually do comical things that I had never thought of. I have often thought that it was largely due to this dog that I made such a success of this business. He is actually the best clown dog that I have ever known, and I think I have seen and handled as many dogs as any man in the business."

SOME WONDERFUL EXHIBITS OF FINE GRAINS AND GRASSES

Board of Trade Has Prepared a Fine Display for Toronto Exhibition

SOME FOR FAIR HERE, TOO

Wheat and Oats Five Feet High Are Mute but Eloquent Witnesses of Our Prosperity.

If anyone is skeptical that the representations that have been made in connection with the crops in Edmonton district are not in accordance with real conditions, let that person visit the main building on the old exhibition grounds on the flats, and it can be guaranteed that his doubt will suddenly be replaced by wonder and admiration. For in that building are gathered together magnificent samples of all the various kinds of growths in this district, mute but convincing testimony of the fertility of central Alberta.

Many of these samples which are now hanging on the walls of the old building will in a very short time be arranged in a conspicuous place, the Canadian National Exhibition which will soon be opened in Toronto, in order that the thousands of visitors to that event from all over the United States and Canada, and many from Europe may gaze on the evidence of the richness of soil, and of ideal climatic conditions, that is to be found in the vicinity of the city.

Collected by Mr. J. L. Porte.

To Mr. J. L. Porte, of Saratoga, belongs the credit of gathering together this magnificent collection of grains and grasses.

Mr. Porte was commissioned some time ago by the board of trade to collect the samples and since then he has been busy in his search for the very best. In the preparation of the many samples of wheat, there is a very large amount of work entailed. Each stalk has to be hand trimmed and cut, and the sheaves have to be neatly arranged and tied up. A great many of the samples were a little green and it was necessary that they be placed on the roof of the building in order that they might be cured. The work has been progressing very rapidly, and Mr. Porte, with the aid of an efficient staff of assistants, expects to get through in time to leave with the exhibit on Saturday night for Toronto.

Wheat Five Feet in Height.
Several kinds of wheat are included in the exhibit. The samples of Alberta Red were obtained from the farm of Mr. Chamberlain, of East Edmonton, and stand over 4½ feet in height, with magnificent heads. Mr. Gee, also of East Edmonton, supplied the samples of Preston wheat, and Mr. Porte stated that he has never seen better. These samples are over five feet in height.

The samples of Red Fife, spring wheat were obtained from the farm of Mr. Robt. Byrnes, of Agricola, and were taken from a field of 70 acres, which is expected to yield 40 bushels to the acre. Mr. Byrnes began his cutting last week.

Some Fine Oats
The samples of oats from the farm of Mr. Wm. Wilson, of Clover Bar, are magnificent, and are splendidly headed. A yield of 75 to 80 bushels an acre is expected from the field in which the latter samples were grown.

Mr. Whiteford also contributed some fine samples of two-rowed barley, about 5½ feet in height. There were several other samples of this kind and also some of six-rowed barley.

Luxuriant Grasses
Included in the exhibit are all kinds of grasses, wild peavine, seven feet high, and swamp grass, eight feet in height, broom grass, and timothy. The samples of the latter are particularly fine and give the lie to the statement that the quality of the hay this year is poor. Although there is a shortage, the quality of the hay is the best, and is the result of a second growth, which event was due to considerable surprise and gladness among the farmers.

Gordon's retirement.

Humor and Philosophy

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

THE woman who has a capable dresser and an artistic outlook may not be beautiful, but nobody knows it.

Having a good conscience is in itself often a great tribute to one's ability, to manage things and keep them from bothering.

Some people think that they are right and then go ahead, while others just think that they are right.

Women can't help being fussy. They know that it is up to them to please the men.

A beautiful blond has her own troubles, staying blond since she has attained to that condition.

Proportion.
Size does not always stand for power. Not only a giant hold his temper and his tongue and watch his words as they unfold.

A large and well developed man. May fuss about a little thing. Not worth a second glance.

A statesman who can sway a crowd Or hold a mob in awe. And make the court sit up and crowl. When he crosses the law.

Will raise the roof and forty kinds Of trouble like a hot. If when he takes his morning meal The coffee isn't hot.

It is a sight worth looking at And going miles to see. A picture from a funny page, As you will all agree.

When Mr. Worth-a-Million-Dollar, Whose wealth is as the dirt, Can't make his collar button fit The collar on his shirt.

Little words that annoy And almost drive to drink. Are worse wasting words and time. Much less a drop of ink.

A man may calmly see destroyed The product of his life. And make the biggest kind of fuss If some one calls him "Dill."

Quite Right.
"What is meant by being an egoist?"

"Being an egoist?"

"Oh, it means being just yourself, old man."

For Domestic Use.
"And so you are married."

"Yes, I have been married for three years."

"And how are all your fine spun theories?"

"I'm living homespun ones now."

M. P. FOR FREDERICKTON A VISITOR IN THE CITY

Likes Edmonton and Is Interested in Saskatchewan Canal Scheme

Mr. O. S. Crockett, member of parliament for Fredericton, New Brunswick, who is accompanying by Mr. Crickett, who are making a pleasure tour of the west, are guests at the King Edward Hotel. Mr. Crockett, when seen by the Capital this morning, expressed his great admiration for Edmonton, praising in particular its splendid situation. He thought that it was more like eastern cities than any others he had visited in the west.

Mr. Crockett is interested in the Saskatchewan water route proposal and stated that he understood that the cost of making the route navigable had been estimated at $1,000,000.

Mr. Crockett had been in the southern part of the province and states that the crops down there appeared rather poor but that in travelling northward, the conditions began to look brighter and on his arrival in the Edmonton district he saw the best crops of any he has seen on his tour.

Mr. Crockett is one of the brightest members of the opposition benches and since his entry into Dominion politics has made quite an impression by the masterly way in which he criticizes the government. He and the Hon. Wm. Pugsley, minister of Public Works, have had many warm arguments.

Mr. and Mrs. Crockett leave tomorrow morning by the G. T. P. for the east.

PEG BRICKLAYERS MAY GO ON STRIKE

Owing to Trouble With the Builders' Exchange Which Has Given Ultimatum

Winnipeg, Aug. 18.—For the past week trouble has been brewing between the Builders' Exchange and the bricklayers' union, owing to the men employed by Lyall Mitchell leaving work, claiming that the firm is controlled by Peter Lyall & Sons of Montreal, whose employees struck some six weeks ago.

Last night the Builders' Exchange issued an ultimatum giving the men until 7 o'clock Friday morning to settle the strike, or they will declare a lockout. The exchange declares the firms are entirely distinct and that whereas their agreement with union states that the men should not strike until any differences have been submitted to arbitration in the case involved. A committee of three men on the case and a motion by a union man, which carried unanimously, declared there was no connection between the firms.

SHOT ACCIDENTALLY

Sackville, N. B., Aug. 18.—Frank Estrabrooks, age 24, of Centerville, was probably fatally shot this morning by the accidental discharge of a revolver in the hands of Andrew McDonald of Amherst.

AT THE EMPIRE

There will be an entire change of programme at the Empire tomorrow starting at the matinee. The Sherman Musical Company will present "A Mistake in Society" which is classed as one of the best and latest musical shows of the day.

The chorus which has made such a hit here will be seen and heard in a lot of new and novel songs and dances and will be costumed in some of the prettiest designs that you will find with any musical company on the road.

The entire company will move to

FIVE DAYS and the BIG FAIR will be on Edmonton, August 23-4-5-6

the Edmonton Opera House for a six weeks' run on next Monday evening opening there at the matinee and Mr. Sherman of the Empire, who also controls the Edmonton has decided to change the name of that house to Lyceum Theatre. The same policy of two shows at night and a matinee every day will still hold good at the Lyceum and there will be an entire change of programme twice a week on Mondays and Thursdays.

"The Burgomaster"
Wm. P. Cullen's great revival of Pickey and Luder's masterpiece of musical comedy, "The Burgomaster" will be seen at the next week, for 6 nights, commencing August 22nd.

Our favorite Gus C. Weinburg will be seen in his original part of Peter Stuyvesant, the governor of New Amsterdam, and will be supported by a company of fifty people. The costumes are especially handsome this year, and the production is new. Much that is novel has been installed in the way of electrical effects. Some of the scenes have been revised, and the dances are all new. The chorus is said to be one of the strongest singing aggregations on the stage.

In the Frozen North

The scene opens in a home down east, where a brutal husband leaves his wife for the Klondyke Hoping to rid himself of her altogether he has a false letter sent to her announcing his death at sea. Overcome with the news the poor woman faints, over-throwing the lamp in her fall. A fire ensues from which she is rescued by a former sweetheart. Two years elapse and again we see the wife parting from her old lover whom she has recently married.

On the other hand Mr. R. B. Bennett held that according to the code, defendant must have legal justification and he had none. If the C. P. R. had not given them due warning then the contention of defending solicitor as to honest belief might be of avail. Over lunch Sept. Deane considered these arguments.

During the hearing of the case Mr. Dennis, assistant to the second vice-president of the C. P. R. heard himself threatened with penalty of arrest if he was not in court when he was wanted. He was subpoenaed for the defence and Mr. Bennett asked that he be allowed to go until called upon. Mr. McGillivray observed, "Well, if he isn't here when we want him I shall have to apply for a warrant to bring him here."

Sept. Deane said that matter had better be discussed if occasion arose to discuss it.

Sept. Deane also convicted Green after lunch, and then adjourned until this morning again at 10.30. The cases are likely to last over a week.

ARCHDEACON MCKIM VISITS IN EDMONTON

Is Much Interested in the Work Along the G. T. P. West of Here

The Venerable Archdeacon McKim of the Diocese of Keewatin, is a guest at the Windsor Hotel for a short visit to Edmonton. The Archdeacon attended the synod of the church of England held in Prince Albert and from there has taken advantage of his proximity to the city to see Edmonton for the first time.

He is especially interested in the work of Mr. J. McCune, among the construction camps on the main line west of the Grand Trunk Pacific and it possible will take a trip west to visit the camps and get acquainted with the work that is being done.

Should he find this impossible he will return on Saturday to Lloydminster and from there take a tour across the prairie visiting the lay readers that are established in each district.

The diocese of Keewatin is just east of Winnipeg extending from the boundary of Minnesota to the North Pole and the Archdeacon wishes to keep in touch with the conditions out west and to keep informed of its progress, has decided to pay this visit. In his own diocese he works in the territory from the C. N. R. main line to the south, his bishop taking the north as far as the Indians and Eskimos go, the work being mainly amongst these people.

EXPECTS TIDE WILL TURN

Manager of C. P. R. Telegraphs Is Quite Enthusiastic Over Them

The night lettergrams, whereby fifty words at night can be sent, at the same cost as ten words in the daytime have proved so popular and have been the means of reducing the work during the day so much, said Mr. Jams Kent, of Montreal, manager of C. P. R. telegraphs, who was in the city yesterday, "that the company will certainly continue their use."

Mr. Kent, accompanied by R. S. Jenkins, of Winnipeg, general superintendent of the C. P. R. telegraphs, and J. McMillan, the Calgary superintendent is making an inspection of the Edmonton and Strathcona offices. Mr. Kent stated that the increase of telegraph business on the main line has necessitated the stringing of 6,000 feet more of copper wire along their trunk line.

that is now in force in the city in regard to ambulance calls. Within a few minutes after the ambulance was notified, it was on the scene, but in this case, where death had already taken place, it was useless. At present there is no arrangement whereby the city police are at once notified when an accident takes place and the ambulance is called. Consequently it was half an hour after the accident had happened before two members of the city police, Sergeant McCallum and Detective Seymour, were on the ground. Detective Sergeant Nicholson of the Mount Police happened to be passing at the time, and so he did what he could to keep the crowd back. It was not his duty however, to collect the names of those who were witnesses of the accident, etc., and strange to say when the city police did arrive on the scene, all they did was to have the body placed on a dolly and driven rapidly to Connelly & McKinley's undertaking establishment.

Child Allowed on Dray

Of course the body could not be touched until after the coroner had viewed it. Dr. Forin was notified, and after he had examined it, the city police ordered it placed on a dray which was waiting. A disgusting feature was that no effort was made on the part of the police to cover the body in any way, and more remarkably still, a youngster of about four years of age was allowed to clamber up on the dray, and stand beside the dead body as it was being driven to the undertakers.

Put Out All Lights

A peculiar circumstance in connection with the accident was that as soon as the body of the unfortunate young man fell over the wires, a complete short circuit was formed, and all the lights in the King Edward Hotel, and other places along First street went out. A thick leather glove that the young man wore was picked up, and was found to have two holes burned right through it by the force of the current. Both hands of the young man were also badly scorched.

Coroner Forin has ordered an inquest for two o'clock this afternoon at Connelly & McKinley's.

L. R. Voligny Leaving for Extended Trip Down the Saskatchewan

On Saturday, Mr. L. R. Voligny, the engineer in charge of the Saskatchewan river survey will leave Edmonton for a trip down the river as far as Le Pas, Mr. H. G. Kerrigan, who is in search of information concerning the rise and fall of the river will accompany him.

The trip will take about a month as Mr. Voligny will stop at each camp along the river to inspect the work being done. The party will consist of fourteen men and a considerable quantity of supplies, the reams of freight being carried by four Peterborough freighting canoes which are at present being loaded at Walter's Mill.

Mr. Voligny this morning said that he expected to have a very pleasant trip. There was plenty of water in the river now, which was no doubt due to a spell of hot weather in the mountains, and there would therefore be very little trouble with any of the rapids.

MCPHEE'S WORLD'S BEST DOG AND PONY SHOW

Will Exhibit Three Days, Commencing Tuesday, Aug. 23rd, Under the Auspices of Edmonton Fair Association, Show Grounds, Second St., Opposite C. N. R. Depot.

Downie's company of educated dogs, ponies, goats, monkeys and elephants, including some splendid vaudeville features and other novelties, will exhibit in this city under canvas.

Downie's exhibition is too well known in this city to need much praise. The simple announcement that his talented dogs and ponies are soon to exhibit here is sufficient to entice the little ones, who in turn make the fact known to the older ones, and as usual, the exhibition will enjoy the same liberal patronage. His exhibition thoroughly deserves all the praise that is bestowed upon it, for it would be impossible to devise a more pleasing and instructive entertainment than the one given by Downie and his wonderful dogs and ponies.
